A Special Invitation from Temple Sinai

Dear All,

I hope this email finds you well.

I wanted to invite you all to attend our Tu b'Shevat Seder, which will be on Saturday, January 27th, at 10:00 am. Please see below. It was lovely to have some of you last year!

Blessings,
Rabbi Séverine Sokol (She/Her/Hers)

Come to Temple Sinai's Tu B'Shevat Seder! Join us and the Interfaith Community for a unique celebration of the New Year for Trees! Travel in Israel along the four seasons through special liturgy and thanksgiving for the beautiful nature God created. The Seder will feature traditional Shabbat and Tu B'Shevat foods (challah dipped in delicious dipping oil, different kinds of fruit & red and white grape juices) bearing special symbolism as well as a meal including quiche, salad and hummus. This event is free of charge, just RSVP to the Temple office (757-596-8352) by Wednesday, January 24th.

And he shall judge between the nations and reprove many peoples, and they shall beat their swords into plowshares and their spears into pruning hooks; nation shall not lift sword against nation, neither shall they learn war anymore. (Isaiah 2:4)

Congregational Hymn “Joy to the World”

Lord’s Prayer

*Our Father, who art in Heaven, Hallowed be thy name.
Thy Kingdom come. Thy will be done, on earth as it is in Heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation;
but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, the power, and the glory, Forever and ever. Amen.*
