September has started out with a couple of surprises. This past Sunday we worshiped in the Fellowship Hall rather than in the Sanctuary. The AC in the sanctuary is down. By the time you get this news, the part should have arrived and the repairs completed. I appreciate everyone's flexibility, especially James and Sarah, as they made sure that we had a live stream of the service. The comments received from our online participants shows how important our virtual presence has become.

The choir is back and did a beautiful prelude. We are so happy to have you back.

I remind you that the September sermons are based on favorite hymns. The two remaining ones are: There Is a Balm in Gilead, and The Love of God. These hymns represent quite a variety and hopefully will bring a new appreciation for our hymns and how they inform our theology. They cover a time span from the late eleventh century to 1982.

Our September Grief and Healing: a Time of Silent Reflection was canceled due to lack of AC in the sanctuary. The next Grief and Healing will be on October 2, which is also World Communion Sunday. After that, these services will be the first Sunday of the month and will remain 2-4. We will also have a Longest Night Service on December 21.

Later this month the worship committee will meet to formalize plans for Thanksgiving, Advent, Christmas, and Epiphany. Time flies and we need to think ahead or this special time of year will too hectic for us to enjoy it.

I am hoping to have a short Bible study this fall. I have had one response to this. I will need more interest to continue working on the study. Possible topics are:

- * An overview of the library that is our Bible
- * Gospel understanding of prayer
- * Parables
- * The 2 accounts of the beatitudes

If you are interested in participating in one of these, please, email me at hiltonccpastor@gmail.com. I will do the one that has the most interest. I am thinking that Monday or Wednesday afternoon would be best.

Happy September. May the changing seasons find you well and refreshed for all that our new month holds.

Blessings, Pastor Natalie

Church Calendar & Meeting Requests

If you are planning a meeting or activity at the church, please note that you MUST contact the office to see if the calendar can accommodate your date and time. Please don't assume that a date is free if you don't see something listed in the eNews or on the website on a particular date. Depending on the nature of the meeting/event, not all events are listed publicly. Contact Carol during office hours which are Mon-Thurs. 7:30am-12:00pm. Thank you.
